a Mail from Holland, and another from Flanders.

Moscow, Dec. 17.

ER Imperial Majesty lets out to-morrow on another Pilgrimage to the Monastery of the Holy Trinity, where she is to stay till the 20th; and a Report is spread, that the late Duke of Courland is to come thither, to pay his Respects to her. If ever that Nobleman should come to Court again, be imagined that Count Munich should be Reports we had in relation to the Shah's Forces towards our Frontiers were a great deal, and at the same time much exaggerated; accounts we have from thence, make all his Neighbourhood of the Caspian Sea but a desert, and admit the nearest of his Posts to be at 100 Leagues from our Dominions. However, Lieutenant Leven is set out this Day, in order to inquire into the Matter, and make a distinct

Dec. 31. The Russian Lieutenant-Colonel arrived here with M. Pecklin, is said to have been from the Czarina, wherein she very commends her Nephew, the Duke of Holstein, to the States; promising, in case he shall be necessary to the present King, to grant the same fairer Terms of Peace than themselves can propose at the same time to make such a Peace to the King of Denmark, as shall dispose of the Kingdom in their Choice.

Dec. 25. The Day before Yesterday, the Dutch Squadron, which formerly made one of Commodore's Squadron, appear'd again before our City, and the Captain came ashore, and went to Mr. Albritton Consul, with whom he went soon after to de Montalegro's, to whom he presented a Letter from Admiral Matthews, in which his Excellency very freely on certain Breaches of Neutrality, the Design of sending certain Regiments into the Kingdom, which he was inform'd was on the point of being executed. The Duke shew'd some Warmth in regard to the menacing Expressions in the said Letter; upon the Captain said, that the Admiral only obey'd his Orders, and that if what he desired was not complied with, he was very little doubt to be made of his sending a Squadron to bombard Naples. The next Day the Duke examin'd by the King in Council, who order'd an Answer to be drawn up, which was delivered by the English Captain by the Duke de Montalegro, the same time explain'd by Word of Mouth the King's Demands. But after all, many People of Opinion, that notwithstanding this Bouncing, such a Postscript to this Letter as will prevent coming to Extremities.

Jan. 8. The King is set out for Potsdam, and will remain for a Week. Cardinal Sintzenberg is expected here to-morrow or the next Day; and will be shortly erected here, for terminating the Disputes of such as are of the Romish Religion. In a Rescript lately directed to the Cardinal, he was pleas'd to give him the following: Philip-Lewis of Sintzendorff, Cardinal Priest of the Roman Church, Bishop of Breslau, Prince of Grosseau, our dear Uncle, most dear and faithful Friend. We are told, that his Majesty has a new Scene of Pacification, by which a speedy End will be put to the Troubles in the Empire, and his Majesty settled in the quiet Enjoyment of his Kingdom.

Jan. 5. On the 2d of this Month, as soon as the Garrison was withdrawn, 5 or 600 Hussars went to the Jews Quarter and began to plunder, in contempt of their Partiality in favour of the Enemy. Lobkowitz was no sooner inform'd of this, than he sent a Detachment of 500 Dragoons to oblige them, which they were not able to do in less than an hour, having first filled their Pockets with Gold and Silver, and carried off a great many rich Cloaths which they had been pawn'd to them by the French. Her Majesty the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia will shortly send Commissioners to enquire into the Conduct of the Citizens of Prague in general, and particularly of the Jews. Some have been already seiz'd for foul Practices, and a few are fled to escape the like Fate. The Reports for raising the Siege were continued the 3d and 4th, when certain Straw Figures, representing People very well known in the World, were publicly burnt, while the People shouted aloud, 'Long live Maria Teresa, our Hereditary and only Lawful Sovereign.' The City is in a miserable Condition, and most of its fine Palaces in Ruins.

Ratisbon, Jan. 10. The Bailiffs and Chiefs of the neighbouring Districts are employ'd in settling Winter-Quarters with the French Commissaries for several Detachments, particularly of Cavalry, which are marching this way. Orders are expedited into the Upper Palatinate to prepare for the Reception of Marshal Bellisle's Forces, which we are inform'd are already on the March thither. We are however very uncertain as to their Number, and are like to remain so. The French insist they are very near 10000, whereas other Advices reduce them even to half the Number. We learn from Amberg, which is but two small Leagues from Amberg, that a Body of 2000 Hussars were waiting in that Neighbourhood for Marshal Bellisle and his Forces, and would in all Probability keep them company to their Journey's End. From all the Motions of the French Army here, it is apparent they have completed their Design, and having once put the Emperor in possession of his Capital and the best Part of Bavaria, are determined to retire as soon as possible towards the Banks of the Rhine.

Frankfort, Jan. 13. Baron Furstenberg, Aid de Camp General to Marshal Bellisle, arrived here Yesterday, and has brought a circumstantial Account of his Retreat, which we suppose will be shortly printed. His Excellency is expected daily in Person, Count Montijo having fitted up an Apartment for him in his Palace. The new Elector Palatine has declared the Marquis D'Intree his Prime Minister. It is thought our Court relies chiefly on his Prussian Majesty for a speedy Peace; and some say that Monarch has full Powers from hence to conclude it on such Terms as shall appear reasonable to him. The French Officers crowd away to France as fast as possible, and those who serv'd under M. Bellisle, shew in their Looks how much they have undergone within these Twelve Months.

Hague, Jan. 17. The States of Holland and West-Friesland have resumed their Sessions as this Day. Circular Letters will be speedily sent to all the Provinces, in order to exhort them to complete their Troops immediately, according to the Resolution formed on the last Augmentation. On the 15th the Marquis de Feneion had a long Conference with the President of the States-General for the Week, as had also the Baron de Reischach. It is now pretty evident, that their High Mightinesses are fix'd in their Resolutions as to certain Measures by the Behaviour of the Partizans of a certain Court, who can scarce forbear threatening, tho' they know nothing could render them more ridiculous, after so many Checks as they have met with in all Parts of Europe. The Princess of Orange advances happily in her Pregnancy, to the great Joy of all the Friends of that illustrious Family.

The Surprising Encouragement, which by our Success, these most Valuable Drops have, for upwards of 20 Years, met with, not only in Great Britain and Ireland, in all Parts of the West-Indies, and other Foreign Countries, has lately induced several mean and mercenary Counterfeits them; and by imitating our Seal, Bill of Directions, and Show-Boards, with our Method of Advertising near as they can or dare to do, without making them thereby impose their dangerous Compositions upon the credulous Shop-keepers both in Town and Country, the True and Genuine Sort.

The PATENTEE and Company therefore, in Gratitude for the universal good Reception they have so long met with, for the Safety of those who for the future may be deluded by the same, think themselves absolutely oblig'd to this necessary Caution;

Which they earnestly request may be observed,
THAT the Bottle they Buy is not Sealed with the Bottle's Head, but with these Words round it, BY THE PATENT, as in the Margin; and that the Names of the PATENTEE, O'Keell, William and Clara Dore, be in Bill of Directions given with each Bottle, without which you may be assur'd it is a notorious Counterfeit, and may be of most dangerous Consequence.
